CALL OFF THE MEETING OF THE "BIG FOUR"

Paris, May 13.—The meeting of the "Big Four," which was scheduled for this morning was called off just as some of the secretaries began arriving.

The German delegation sent word that further communication which it will address to the allies were not yet ready. The committee which is drafting the Austrian treaty was not ready with its documents and there was therefore no business on the slate for the "Big Four."

The members then turned their individual attention to a multitude of matters with the Italian question uppermost in the minds of the American delegates. President Wilson heard a lengthy report from Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page, who recently arrived from Rome and called at the White House this afternoon. There were informal conferences between other members of the American delegates and Italian representatives.

It was reliably reported that the Germans have completed a substitute for every paragraph of the peace treaty and that this document would be delivered to the allies today.

However as the entente envoys have taken a definite stand there is not much reason to believe that much time will be taken for a decision by the Germans on the terms that were handed to them at Versailles. It is believed, however, that should the Germans seek to go to Weimer, time will be given them to allow the German government to set forth its official position.

Should the Teutonic envoys leave it is believed that a solemn warning will be imposed upon them that delays for propaganda purposes would be dangerous.

TWO BIG PLANES AWAIT ARRIVAL OF THIRD BEFORE START

Chatham, Mass., May 13.—Hope of "hopping off" Cape Cod today on the 800 mile jump to Trepassy, N. F., was abandoned this afternoon by Lieut. Commander A. C. Read, of Lyme, N. H., in charge of the naval hydroplane, NC-4.

Aboard U. S. S. Aroostok, Trepassy, May 13.—Commander Towers, "admiral of the American transatlantic fliers today is awaiting arrival of the NC-4, so the "jump-off" to the Azores may be made by his complete squadron of three planes. The NC-4 is reported in readiness for her "hop" from Chatham, Mass., awaiting favorable weather.

"If the NC-4 will start very soon without additional repairs," said Towers today, "I will await her arrival, regardless of how favorable the weather is for our own get-away."

This definitely ended all chances for the NC-1 and NC-3 starting their leg to the Azores today. It was believed.

Today the weather was favorable for the flight. A heavy fog extended from Halifax to Trepassy, and rain was falling for a distance of 50 miles out to sea, according to reports here. High winds in mid-ocean are moderating and are expected to disappear within 24 hours. Arrival of the dirigible C-5 from Montauk, L. I., is expected daily. The plan now is to have destroyers take positions from New Foundland to Ireland to assist in the dirigible venture after the seaplanes have left. The dirigible is counted on to make 40 knots an hour.

The weather forecast for tomorrow is west winds and fair coastwise with mild winds out to sea.

EIGHTIETH DIVISION ARRIVES.

Brest, May 13.—The eightieth division is arriving here from Lemans at the rate of two train loads a day. The advance units of the ninetieth division are expected to reach here May 20.

GERMAN LEADER AT LAST SEES WHAT "BRUTAL MILITARISM" LEADS TO

BY JOHN GRAUDENZ.

Berlin, May 12.—"This peace is not acceptable," Chancellor Scheidemann said today in a speech before the National Assembly.

"We are willing to sign a peace, but only a peace we can fulfill—one that will leave us to work off and pay off what is just," said Scheidemann.

"We will not fight. We want peace. We see with a shudder what brutal militarism leads to, from the example set by the entente."

"We want to save the naked life of the country and the people. We are unable to compare the peace terms with Wilson's program. The

HOUSING PROBLEM TOPIC DISCUSSED AT LEAGUE MEETING

The housing problem in Xenia was the main question before the members of the Social Service League at the regular meeting held Monday evening.

The members of the League heartily approved the plan agitated by City Manager Riddle for one or more community single-story houses, operated under supervision of the League and the city, as a solution to the problem. A survey conducted some time ago proved that almost unbelievable sanitary conditions exist in Xenia, which are a stain on the name of the city and conducive of ill health and degeneration.

The plan of Mr. Riddle is to build one or several four apartment buildings, either through private or syndicate ownership, and to operate them under supervision of the city and the Social Service League. The proposed buildings, plans for which have been drawn up by Harold W. Dice, will be constructed one story high, be constructed with sanitary facilities, and will permit of a garden plot for each family. Inspectors provided by the League and the city will see that the apartments are kept in a sanitary condition, and that the buildings are kept in a state of repair. The city and the league will be back of any investor who cares to build the houses, which will pay over ten per cent interest, allowing a minimum of rental in order to take care of the poorer families.

Housing conditions are deplorable, according to Manager Riddle, who has conducted a personal investigation, and sanitary conditions that could hardly be imagined were seen by the investigators in their survey. In one place an old barn has been converted into a 4-apartment house. It is built along the creek in a most unsanitary place and no sanitation is provided. Water is secured from a common well by the four families who occupy the place in almost unbelievable squalor. The rental from this barn is $18 a month for the four apartments which represents 10 per cent on an investment of $2160. According to themanager, the building itself is not worth $2160.

In another place in "Barr's Bottom," that the investigators reached, houses in a bad state of repair and not fit for habitation are being rented out to poor families for $6.50. In every city where the housing condition has reached the state it has here, the community house plan under public supervision has been tried out and found to be the only reliable solution to the problem. At present the plans are ready for the first house to be built here, which will be in the nature of an experimental affair, and the authorities are now looking for an investor or syndicate willing to invest in the plan.

The League permitted Mrs. Robinson of the Social Service League a ten days leave of absence to attend the national convention being held in Atlanta, Georgia in event that she has her own expenses. No further business was transacted at the meeting.

OVERLAND STRIKE STILL UNSETTLED

Toledo, May 13.—No settlement of the strike involving the Overland and Autolite plants and several other concerns here was in sight today, although the conference between company officials and striking workmen instituted by Mayor Schreiber continue.

State labor mediators probably will take a hand today in an effort to effect a settlement. The men remain firm in their demand for a 40 hour week.

PETROGRAD ABOUT READY TO FALL

Stockholm, May 13.—Petrograd is expected to fall to the allied forces within a few days, said a dispatch from Helsingfors today.

Stockholm, May 13.—Petrograd is expected to fall to the allied forces within a few days, said a dispatch from Helsingfors today.

world is shorn of illusion and Wilson's picture as a bringer of peace has faded. According to the terms, Germany has ceased to exist abroad. Who, as an honest man, is able to sign the treaty as it now stands? None!

"We want to negotiate, but millions in all countries already are crying aloud their murder plans. If this treaty is signed, not only will Germany's cadaver be lying on the battlefield of Versailles, but it will also be joined by that of the independence of free nations and their faith in the ideals of the entente."

Scheidemann's speech was applauded throughout, except by the radicals.

GOULDS IN QUARREL OVER GEORGE'S ACTS AS TRUSTEE

The heirs of Jay Gould are treating the world to the spectacle of a very furious family quarrel. Frank J. Gould, who recently divorced his second wife, an actress, has got into the courts again by accusing his brother, George J. Gould, executor and trustee of the Jay Gould estate, with frauds and violation of the law, resulting in a loss to the estate of $25,000,000.

and getting a court order to compel George to show cause why he should not be removed from office. George Gould's son, Kingdon, is accused of having conspired with his father. The two sisters of George and Frank are divided in their allegiance. The Duchess de Talleyrand, formerly Anna Gould, sides with the plaintiff, while Helen Gould Shepard stands with the defendant.

CROWN PRINCE TRIED TO END HIS WORTHLESS LIFE

BY HENRY JACQUES.

Exclusive Cable by the I. N. S. and the Paris Petit Journal.

Charleville, France, May 1.—(Delayed)—That the former crown prince of Germany attempted to commit suicide at Charleville just before his flight into Holland, was learned today from a fortune teller, known as Mme. Emma, whose chief client during the German occupation of this part of France was Wilhelm's heir.

At the same time the crown prince attempted to shoot one of his many sweethearts, which was unsuccessful. "You will never resign," was one of the sensational predictions made by Mme. Emma, at one sitting she gave Frederick William.

I have just had a long talk with Mme. Emma and the picture she presents of the former crown prince is far from that swashbuckling, victorious warrior.

Early in the winter of 1916 he entered her house on a side street and without giving his name, handed her various small articles belonging to his wife and children.

"Where do they come from?" the imperial heir asked brusquely.

Mme. Emma, who had immediately recognized the ex-crown prince, had no trouble in giving an answer to the question.

"Now read the cards and tell us what the future has in store for me," was the next command.

The fortune teller spread her cards upon the table, studied them closely, and replied calmly:

"You will never reign!"

Never questioning her prophesy, the then crown prince paled and with bent head and shoulders left the house without saying another word.

But Mme. Emma had left a deep impression upon him, and later he called on several occasions to consult her not about affairs of state, but concerning some of the love intrigues which made him notorious in this connection. He confessed he had grown madly infatuated with a girl in her teens, whom he called Bebe.

"As soon as I saw her I fell in love with her," the former heir confessed. Then he asked her what the outcome would be.

The task was no means to the liking of the seeress. The lover might be told with impunity that he would lose his throne, but who could foresee what would happen if misfortune were also told for an affair of the heart. Emma took no chances and did not scruple to paint the future in glowing colors.

Another day she then crown prince came to Emma to inquire about the future of his father, then the kaiser.

"He will die of trouble in the head," was the ambiguous answer of the fortune teller, who wished to avoid using the word "madness." But the prince had no tender feelings.

Bursting into laughter, he cried: "That does not surprise me in the case of papa."

During the spring offensive, when the hopes of German great headquarters reposed in the triumph of the ex-crown prince's army, the fortune teller was once more consulted.

"Read from the cards how long I am destined to remain with Bebe," he commanded.

"Seven days and seven months," was the reply.

"The cards lie!" was the threatening retort, and he added with a threatening grin.

"If that is so, I would prefer to kill myself right now with my Bebe."

He came near putting the plan into execution. Shortly before he left Charleville, Frederick William learned that one of his generals was threatened with utter defeat, and had committed suicide in a hotel room.

Brooding over this, the ex-crown prince drew his revolver and fired several shots at Bebe, but only one bullet endangered her life. This one ripped through her cheek. Next he attempted to turn the weapon on himself, but several aide de camps, who had been attracted by the shots, ran into the room and disarmed him.

A few days later the former crown prince fled into Holland.

SEVERAL AMERICAN QUARRYMEN KILLED

Bijon, France, May 13.—Several American quarrymen were killed and a dozen injured in a dynamite explosion at Is-Sur-Tille, it was reported today.

Is-Sur-Tille is 10 miles north of Dijon and 40 miles south of Chaumont.

SET CLOCKS BACK

Akron, O., May 13.—City council last night passed an ordinance setting back Akron's clocks an hour, effective immediately, in conformity with Central Standard time. It awaits the mayor's signature.

Canton, O., May 13.—Canton City Council voted unanimously last night to drop the daylight saving hour and go back to Central time. The change is effective at 2 A. M., next Sunday.

Painesville, O., May 13.—Painesville clocks were set back an hour early today. Willoughby has also gone back to Central time.

Zanesville, O., May 13.—At a meeting last night the city council passed a resolution to set the clocks back one hour next Saturday night at midnight, without any official reference to eastern or central time.

GERMANS MUST HURRY.

Paris, May 13.—President Wilson will remain in Paris until the peace treaty is signed, but has made it plain that the Germans must not protract their discussions beyond June 15, the Echo De Paris states.

PROGRESSIVES WILL NOT ENDANGER THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY

Washington, May 13.—Senate Progressives have definitely decided that they will not endanger Republican control of the senate by their fight on Senators Penrose and Warren as chairmen of the finance and appropriations committees.

Though some of them declared today they will never vote for either Penrose or Warren, they will not support the Democratic candidates for these or other positions, they added.

At a final conference today progressives said they expect to determine:

1. Who their candidates will be for the two chairmanships and for president pro tem of the senate.

2. How they will conduct their fight before the republican caucus and on the floor of the senate.

3. Whether they will accept any committee chairmanships themselves.

Progressive Republicans were today trying to urge Hiram Johnson to be president pro tem. Senator Smoot having announced his withdrawal. If he proves unavailable, Progressives favor Senator Lenroot, Wisconsin.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE HUNGARIAN REICHSTAG KILLED

Milan, May 13.—Dr. Navay, former president of the Hungarian reichstag, was assassinated on Monday, while traveling on a train from Vienna to Budapest, according to a dispatch from the former city today.

TWENTY BRITISH WARSHIPS ARRIVE AT HELSINGFORS

London, May 13.—Twenty British warships have arrived at Helsingfors, and it is believed that the allies are contemplating action against Petrograd.

RACING BALLOONS STILL IN THE AIR

Akron, May 13.—Four balloons entered in the navy cross country flight which started from here at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, are still in the air, according to reports reaching Akron, Tuesday morning.

Balloons landing to date are: The "City of Akron," reported from Clayton, Del.; The "Chamber of Commerce," Mt. Pleasant Station, Maryland; and the "Sherwin-Williams," forced to effect a landing one mile southeast of Baden, Pa., after having been shot at 15 times.

GERMANS PROTEST BUT WILL SIGN THE ALLIED PEACE TREATY

Zurich, May 13.—A German propaganda agency today made the following statement:

"Chancellor Scheidemann, speaking before the National Assembly on Monday, declared the peace treaty in its present form is not acceptable. The social Democrats protested against its severity but advised signing it. The other parties opposed signing the pact as now constituted."

Paris, May 13.—The German peace envoys, having agreed among themselves that they cannot secure a modification of terms, will sign the peace treaty, according to confidential information reaching President Wilson today.

Herr Lansberg and Herr Geisberg, two members of the Teutonic peace mission, have left Versailles for Berlin to inform the government of the decisions reached by the plenipotentiaries.

The final conclusions and a definite course of action will be decided upon by the Germans before Sunday.

The Big Four met again this morning and continued their consideration of Austrian questions.

The Austrian peace delegation is scheduled to arrive at St. Germain tonight and from indications will assume a passive attitude when the terms are presented.

Signor Crespi, of the Italian delegation, is quoted as saying that aside from her territorial demands, Italy will expect all peoples who were members of the dual monarchy in 1914 to contribute the indemnity Austria-Hungary must pay.

The Servians (now part of Jugo Slavia) are demanding complete reparation in addition to Bosnia and Herzegovina. Jugo Slavia is ready, however, to accord the Austrians and Magyars access to the Adriatic through Dmowiki.

Poland is claiming the eastern part of Galicia and an outlet to the Black Sea by way of Kromarez.

In addition to their claim for the Teschen basin the Czechoslovaks want a sea outlet to the Baltic. The Czechoslovaks furthermore are seeking the internationalization of the Elbe river, facilities to use the Hamburg and Stettin harbors and also an outlet to the Adriatic via Pressburg and Jugo-Slav territory.

AUSTRO - HUNGARIAN PEACE TERMS ARE RAPIDLY NEARING COMPLETION

BY FRED S. FERGUSON.
United Press Staff Correspondent.
Copyright, 1919, by United Press.

Paris, May 12.—The Austro-Hungarian peace terms, while designed to reduce the former dual monarchy to the status of a third class nation, will provide its economic rehabilitation, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

The treaties though not yet completed are expected to be ready for presentation this week. The outstanding feature naturally will be the definition of boundaries. This will officially establish the independence of Hungary and the two republics of Czechoslovakia and Jugo-Slavia. No doubt will be allowed to remain regarding the independence of German Austria. Not only was this specified in the German treaty, but necessity for approval by the council of the league of nations of any union with Germany will be provided in the Austrian treaty.

As in the German treaty, the first section of the Austro-Hungarian pact will be in the league of nations. Other salient points, the United Press is able to state will be as follows:

BOUNDARIES.

Austria will be reduced to what is now known as German Austria. Banat and Transylvania will be awarded to Jugo-Slavia. In the Hungarian treaty a large part of Transylvania will go to Rumania. Tyrol will become Italian. Regardless of the outcome of the Fiume dispute, Austria and Hungary will be given access to the sea. This would be in the form of the right to use the railways and docks in Fiume.

MILITARY.

The Austrian and Hungarian armies will be reduced to mere police forces. They must be maintained on a volunteer basis, as conscription will be abolished. All munitions and artillery will be surrendered, including any remaining big siege guns. Hungary will be required to reduce her fortifications on the Rumanian frontier.

FRONTIER.

Naval: All except a nominal number of war ships will be surrendered.

ECONOMICS.

The economic provisions will be along the same line as those of the German treaty, save that the conditions will be infinitely easier owing to the break up of the empire.

Peacemaker debts will be shared by the Czechoslovakia, Jugo-Slavia, Hungarians and Austrians in the proportion of their interest in the obligations while they were a part of the empire.

REPARATIONS.

A permanent financial commission will be established to handle indemnities, as in the German treaty. The former parts of the empire will be required to make 25 initial payment within the means of their governments, the remainder being collected by the commission.

RESPONSIBILITIES.

The responsibilities section will carry the same provisions for trial of those guilty of criminal acts as the German treaty. There will be no provisions, however, for trial on political charges, thus assuring that former emperor Karl will escape the fate of Wilhelm Hohenzollern.

RIVERS.

Navigation of the Danube will be superintended by a special commission, under the league of nations. The Italians have not indicated any change in their position regarding Fiume and the Dalmatian coast. President Wilson also is understood to be standing firm on this question. According to available information this subject has not been taken up formerly since the return of the Italian delegates to the peace conference, Premier Clemenceau, Foreign Secretary Balfour and Premier Venizelos met at Wilson's house yesterday and it was rumored that they discussed Italy's claims in the light of the pact of London.

The military terms will be largely a matter of the allies going on record as to what their demands are, as Austria-Hungary's defeat was so complete it is doubtful if any large number of guns or munitions can be found. Certainly no organization is left. The Hungarian fortifications also are practically useless.

EIGHT SHIPS WITH 12,430 ABOARD ARE NEARING U. S. PORT

New York, May 13.—The transport, Von Steuben, bringing 2,940 men from Brest, was the first of eight troop ships with 12,430 soldiers who are scheduled to arrive today, to reach Ambrose lightship this morning. Other transports were due to arrive later in the day and dock before night fall.

The Von Steuben brought the 120th machine gun battalion complete, the 323rd field artillery complete, the 158th field artillery brigade headquarters and scattered casual companies and convalescent units.

AKRON TO HAVE NEW $3,000,000 HOTEL

PROTEST AGAINST BOUT.

Cleveland, May 13.—Characterizing the proposed Willard Demusey bout at Toledo, July 4, as "indecent and unchristian," Cleveland churchmen were today preparing protests which will be sent to Governor Cox.

The ministers' union and the civic committee of the federated churches of Cleveland are preparing the protests.

Splendid Way To Reduce Your Weight

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, flabby figure and forty inch waist "gives us away." The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a starving diet, violent massage or strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola; take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will give quick relief from overburdening the stomach at meal time as it assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat; at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you with the genuine Phynola at a small cost.

For Constipation! Physic Purge or Laxative?

Everyone now and then becomes constipated, and millions are chronically in that condition. The perplexing question arises—what to use.

Purgatives and cathartics are drastic and usually cause a reaction. Saline waters are rapid in action but do no more than empty the bowels.

Just as certain an effect, and certainly a much more pleasant one, can be obtained by the use of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It acts gently, without griping. It is an especially ideal medicine for children, women, old people and others who find purges too powerful.

Only a teaspoonful is required, and by morning the movement is free and complete. A bottle in the house is insurance for the whole family against constipation, indigestion, headaches, flatulency and other digestive ills.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

DELCO-LIGHT Increases Farm Efficiency

Fifty thousand Delco-Light plants in operation on American farms are saving at the most conservative estimate, an hour a day each—or over 18,000,000 work hours a year. That is equal to an army of 60,000 men working ten hours a day for a full month.

Delco-Light is a complete electric light and power plant for farms and suburban homes. It furnishes an abundance of clean, safe, economical light, and operates pump, churn, cream separator, washing machine and other appliances.

It is also lighting rural stores, garages, churches, schools, army camps and railway stations.

HARNESSING THE HORSES
CAPITAL AND LABOR TO PULL TOGETHER.

In men's association with each other, in what we call every day contact, matters of relation to their mutual interests in a business way, questions come and questions go, but there is one relation in which they come and appear to never go, or in other words are with us ever. This is the relation of Capital to Labor. In the spirit of justice they ought to be brothers, partners, but alas, in how few cases are they such—and in the language of Postum "there is a reason."

And we guess nearly every body knows the reason to be that Capital is not satisfied with its share of the output where the two work in the production of a commodity—in other words that Capital, holding the pursestrings, assumes the position of employer, Labor being dependent on it and to that extent giving it the right to make the terms of association. But the world is waking up to new conditions in a new era of Justice and Equality of interest between employer and employee, to the end that Labor is or should be entitled to a larger share of profit than it has been having.

More than ever before, the voice of the man who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow is being heard. More than ever before there is a crying demand for more comfort for him, better living conditions, and insistent claim for far more interest on the part of his employer in him and his family.

A notable example worthy of imitation is the plan of representation of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, where, following a strike of almost inconceivable bitterness, the Rockefeller interests glimpsed the dawn of the new industrial day and reorganized the management and men so that they might deal with each other instead of fighting each other. How commendable that by the use of common sense they found the way of harnessing the two good horses, Capital and Labor, so that they would pull together at the same impulse.

The Rockefeller plan is aptly described as the "four partners of industry," the members of the firm being capital, labor, management and the public. The basic idea of this arrangement is that representatives of the labor groups have been given a seat in the board of management, and have a voice and a vote on questions hitherto determined arbitrarily by the owners.

In Cleveland recently over 1,500 tailors became involved in a strike which became acute because the employers refused to meet the men. Finally a committee of the Federated Churches took the matter in hand, got both sides together, and brought about a settlement. Once the employers and the leaders of the strikers really got seated about a conference table, and each listened to the other, ready to make concessions, it was easy to find a common ground of agreement, and the strike was soon ended.

It has been more than nineteen hundred years since Christ laid down the Golden Rule. Out of the turmoil of conflict there seems to arise a more insistent demand than ever before that mankind shall pay heed to this rule; that the business of the world shall be conducted with due regard to all the people, and that out of the travail and suffering of the last four and a half years must come a nearer approach to the philosophy of Christ.

Chili Peppers.

From data gathered from the various consular districts it is revealed that the growing of chili peppers is confined principally to the states of Vera Cruz, Aguascalientes, San Luis Potosi and Lower California, and the district around San Martin, in the state of Puebla. This latter district is found to be in normal times one of the most important for the cultivation of this product for export, the possibility for the crop being very extensive.

A TWO BILLION DOLLARS
WHEAT CROP.

The greatest crop of winter wheat ever produced in any country is in prospect for this year's harvest. Today's forecast of production, estimated by the Department of Agriculture, placed its size at almost 900,000,000 bushels—in exact figures, 899,915,000—which would make this year's harvest worth $2,034,000,000 at the government's price guarantee of $2.26 a bushel.

Kansas is producing an enormous crop, the forecast of production for that state being almost 22 per cent of the country's total indicated output. Illinois has a forecast of nearly 66,000,000 bushels, Indiana about 56,000,000, Ohio 55,000,000 and Oklahoma slightly more than 54,000,000.

The acreage is the largest on record, and the area abandoned from winter killing, overflows and other causes is extremely low, 1.1 per cent. Growing conditions have been splendid, and the crop from April 1 to May 1 made an improvement, bringing it to 100.5 per cent of a normal, which is the highest condition on record for May 1. Continued good growing conditions from now to time of harvest might result in a crop larger than 900,000,000 bushels.

MOTORAIDS

No experienced motorist should take the road without a trouble lamp aboard. About the saddest of human experiences is trying to make repairs at night without adequate light. In packing the extra equipment necessary to be carried on the car, it should be a rule to store in the most accessible places under the seats, handy when needed, all tools and parts that will be ordinarily called for in the ordinary risks of travel. This will obviate the turning out of the occupants of the car whenever a small mishap occurs.

In considering this subject of tool equipment we have endeavored to consider the needs of the average car under average conditions. For the man who never drives out of his own neighborhood an elaborate tool equipment would be piling useless weight on his car. For the motorist of the class who consistently refuses to soil his hands in even turning down his grease cups, the tool equipment is useless. But the average motorist comes under neither of these heads. His need for economy compels him to keep his car in the best running order by his own hands.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS.

NEIL REQUESTS BAB TO SAY
NOTHING OF HIS AFFAIRS
TO HIS AUNT.
CHAPTER LXXXVI.

The next day Aunt told us all about the accident. It had been a rear end collision and several had been badly injured; two or three killed outright. "It was a terrible experience," she said. "One I hope will never be repeated, altho it makes very little difference how we die, if only we are ready." She was a very good, and really religious woman.

"I thought that train never would come," I said. "It would have been very lonely and tiresome for Neil had you not been with him. I know of nothing more wearying than waiting way in to the night in a railroad station. Then, too, you were worrying about me," she had turned to Neil at her last sentence. I was about to say that I had been the one who waited alone but caught myself just in time. Neil flushed when she said that it would have been tiring for him to wait all alone. I would not embarrass him by letting her know that he had arrived at the station only a few moments before she came.

I hoped great things from Mrs. Carter's visit. Neil was very fond of her, very proud to have her see how well he had done and anxious for her good opinion. Perhaps he would give up spending his evenings away from me. He might even give up going to Blanche Orton's if he thought she would know and disapprove. I would plan to do things for her entertainment, give little affairs from which Neil could not very well absent himself.

My social aspirations were again aroused. Perhaps Lorraine Morton and Mr. Frederick had not been quite so right as I had believed in saying that I couldn't do anything in a society way just at the present time. Aunt was very aristocratic, very fine appearing. She would be a great help if I should decide to persist in my plans. Yet even as these thoughts came I turned cold as other thoughts followed—that I might be snubbed, that Mrs. Powers might refuse to come to me, and all the other things which Lorraine had told me stood in the way of my success.

"You will remain at home more now that your aunt is here, won't you?" I said to Neil.

"I shall if it is possible. But I cannot neglect my business even for her. I shall tell her that she will have to excuse me when I am unable to come home. Other than that I prefer she should know nothing of my business, my affairs."

"You will not go to those business dinners at Mrs. Orton's then, will you? She would be horribly shocked that you would accept an invitation to a woman's house without me."

"I shall do what I think necessary for the success of the deals I am trying to put thru. If she hears of anything which displeases her, I shall know you have told her."

"Neil—you aren't doing anything wrong, are you dear?"

"What rot! I must say Bab that you are getting to be rather a wet blanket. You used to be so pleased when I was successful, now you act all the time like a bear with a grouse. When I look around and see how differently we live from what we did when we were first married, I can't understand you. Most women would be delighted to have as much money as I have. Most women I mean. Of course older people like Powers have more, but even they are in the minority."

"Sometimes I wonder if we weren't happier when we had less. Neil. You had more time for me then."

"I shall have all the time you will want after a few more years. You will be crying for me to go out and let you have a rest when that time comes."

"I should like to try it. But joking aside, Neil, it doesn't seem as if I could go on this way. I am so worried over—things."

"You mean that silly twaddle about my not going personally and testing the metal from every mine. It can't be done. I have to take a lot of things on faith, others will have to also—if they want to make money."

"But Neil that man Tearle, and Connor too must have very bad reputations. I do wish you would not be with them. It is your association with men like them that makes men like Mr. Powers afraid to trust you—and your—deals." I had been about to say schemes.

"Damn Powers, I can get along without him or any of them."

WILSON ASKS THAT THE BOY SCOUTS BE GIVEN SUPPORT

Washington, May 13.—President Wilson, in a proclamation recommends that the period beginning June 8 to Flag Day, June 14, be observed as Boy Scout Week, for the purpose of strengthening the work of the Boy Scouts of America. The president urged that in each community a citizens' committee be organized to co-operate in carrying out a program "for extending the Boy Scout program to a larger proportion of American boyhood."

Under plans announced by James E. West, Chief Scout Executive, a campaign will be conducted for 1,000,000 associate members to act as scout masters, assistants and other leaders.

President Wilson's proclamation fixing the campaign week follows: "The Boy Scouts of America have rendered notable service to the nation during the World War. They have done effective work in Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns, in discovering and reporting upon the black walnut supply, in co-operating with the Red Cross and other war work agencies, in acting as dispatch bearers for the Committee on Public Information and in other important fields."

"The Boy Scouts not only have demonstrated their worth to the nation, but have contributed to a deeper appreciation by the American people of the higher conception of higher patriotism and good citizenship."

"The Boy Scout movement not only should be preserved, but strengthened. It deserves the support of all public spirited citizens. The available means for the Boy Scout movement thus far have sufficed for the organization and training of only a small proportion of the boys of the country. There are approximately 10,000,000 boys in the United States between the ages of 12 and 21 years. Of these, only 375,000 are enrolled as members of the Boy Scouts of America."

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

They Were Seven!

By ERNEST BETTERIDGE

(Copyright, 1919, by Western Newspaper Union.)

"Looking for a job, eh? Well, you go seven blocks down that street to the end of the town. There you'll find Sevenoaks. Neat little place. John Darlow owns it. Ask for him. I happen to know he wants a handy man and you look like that. And say, there's a pretty daughter there. Ah! Stick to Darlow for seven years, like the man did in the story, and maybe you'll get her. And she's worth waiting for, believe me!"

Thus a native of Brompton, answered an incidental inquiry of Wylie Marsh. The latter, a fine looking young fellow of about 20, smiled at the quaint presentation of his informant, thanked him and seemed infused with the "seven" idea, for within seven minutes he was at the Darlow place.

Seven hours work about the place and at the supper table Marsh met Celia Darlow. Never so tidy a little housekeeper, never a more charming face! With a feeling of rare content Marsh settled down into a groove that seemed exactly fitted to him.

By the end of seven weeks Marsh and Celia were engaged. At the end of seven months John Darlow discovered this mutual devotion, fiercely ordered Marsh out of the house and nearly broke Celia's heart by that act. Celia eloped with Marsh, and from a town seven miles distant wrote a beseeching note asking for the parental blessing and forgiveness.

There came back a scathing, scorching reply. Forever, it stated, she was shut out from heart and home. Neither she nor the man she had wedded without permission should ever darken the door of Sevenoaks again! More appeals, more bitter and definite replies, and Celia knew that she had cast in her lot with Marsh for good.

Seven years passed by, unforgiving and lonely for John Darlow, full of life, variety and bliss for the wedded pair. Tender, considerate, loving, Marsh had never given Celia cause to regret marrying him, except for sorrowful thoughts regarding her father Celia was supremely content.

Marsh, it seemed, before coming to Sevenoaks had been a member of a circus troupe. He was a gymnast with a peculiar talent. This was the ability with lightning swiftness to hang, twist and swing from one trapeze bar to a series of others placed at various distances. His act was a star one and liberally paid for. When he had applied at Sevenoaks for work it was after a fit of illness and out of the circus season.

Marsh followed his unique profession only four months in the year. The first season Celia accompanied him, and added to their store of savings by taking charge of the wardrobes of the members of the troupe. The second year there was a baby, the third year Marsh had accumulated sufficient to purchase a pretty bungalow with several acres set in small fruit surrounding it.

Then began an ideal existence for the happy pair, still lovers. Marsh was at home eight months of the year. Two new babies came along and health and harmony made the time fly swiftly. Upon each recurring birthday of her father Celia wrote him a loving note, but no attention was paid to these.

It was the anniversary of their wedding day when bad news came to them. Sevenoaks was 200 miles away, but Marsh got out his automobile and started on the long trip without losing a moment. A telegram from a physician had apprised Celia that her father was dangerously ill. When they reached the old home a nurse told them that Mr. Darlow was unconscious, and after they had seen the physician they knew that the patient had seen his best days.

"His trouble may wear off with time," the doctor said, "but he may be an invalid for many months." There was a serious consultation and Marsh took the responsibility of removing his father-in-law to their own home.

Marsh had to go away on business and it was with eagerness and expectancy that he returned at the end of a week. Celia had written him that her father was improving, that he had even been able to come out into the garden in an invalid chair, but that his mind seemed still clouded.

Ah! how it awakened to full action the day when Marsh returned. As the volatile gymnast came in sight of the house seven children flocked to meet him with joyous cries. One by one he picked them up, and one by one as he had them he hung them all in a row upon the lower limb of a tree, suspended by toes, knees and hands. They filled the air with strident mirth. Then Marsh struck an attitude and let them run up his planted knee, and behold! a human pyramid! At all this John Darlow stared, agape.

"Seven!" he breathed, bewilderedly. "What a family—what a man—not not all yours, Celia?"

"Four we adopted, dear father—orphans. They belonged to an old circus partner of Wylie's."

"He's a good man!" murmured Darlow brokenly. "Tell him so. I've been a hard-hearted old reprobate! Tell him that, too!" And an hour later Celia and Wylie, reconciled to the elaborate John Darlow, felt that their earthly paradise was complete.

Ivory Mats.

There are but three mats of ivory in existence. The largest one measures eight by four feet, and although made in the north of India, has a Greek design for a border. It is used only on state occasions, like the signing of important documents. The cost of this precious mat was almost incalculable, for more than 6,400 pounds of pure ivory were used in its construction. Only the finest and most flexible strips of the material could be used, and the mat is like the finest woven fabric.

Buttermilk Creates Beauty Overnight

Delightful New Vanishing Cream Containing True Buttermilk Makes You Look Years Younger or Money Back.

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic, but the most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull and most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

There is no secret about it nor is there any doubt about the result—it's just common ordinary Buttermilk in the form of a wonderful cream gently massaged with the finger tips around the corners of the eyes and mouth. To prove this to your complete satisfaction obtain a small quantity of Howard's Buttermilk Cream at Sayre & Hemphill's on the money back if dissatisfied plan. The directions are simple and it costs so little that any girl or woman can afford it. adv

If this is to be your year get a Maxwell

THERE are untold numbers in America who have felt Old Man Opportunity slap them on the back in the last four months. This is to be their year.

If you be one of them let your mind turn to a larger, more luxurious car—a Maxwell, equipped with every modern device, better looking, better riding.

Give your pride the treat it has looked forward to. Get a self-starting, demountable rim automobile. Get a car that expresses yourself.

A Maxwell costs no more to run or maintain. It gives you many extras in comfort and ease of mind.

Many of the richest men in America drive Maxwells.

They appreciate the 300,000-all-alike idea behind the Maxwell. They know that a chassis which has withstood a manufacturing "run" of 300,000 in 5 years without radical change means a perfection in motor car development.

If your pride could talk it would say:

"Get a Maxwell."

Unlucky Thirteen.

A correspondent suggests that the origin of the "unlucky thirteen" superstition is to be found in the casting lots by Hannu to discover a "lucky day" for the destruction of the Jews. The 13th was certainly a most unfortunate selection in this case, and the story was so popular in the middle ages that it may really have given rise to the superstition.

Quite Right, Auntie!

Aunt Nancy listened with horror to the language of a fat old gentleman who had been forced to climb six flights of stairs to his office because the elevator wasn't running. "There," she said, sagely. "There is an example of what we may expect from a man who has had no bringin' up."

"BAYER CROSS" ON ASPIRIN

Always Ask for Genuine
"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Only Aspirin Tablets with the safety "Bayer Cross" on them are genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," owned and made by Americans and proved safe by millions of people. Unknown quantities of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold recently by a Brooklyn dealer which proved to be composed mostly of Talcum Powder.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" should always be asked for. Then look for the safety "Bayer Cross" on the package and on each tablet. Accept nothing else! Proper directions and dosage in each Bayer package.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

WANT OHIO TO SEND CAR OF SHEEP TO DEVASTATED FRANCE

Columbus, O., May 13—Ohio sheep breeders are asked to contribute a car of first-grade sheep for the devastated regions of France. This request comes in connection with the Methodist Centenary Movement, and has the hearty approval of the Ohio Wool Growers' Association.

Recently Bishop William F. Anderson, of Cincinnati, returned from France with a vivid description of the hundreds of miles of that country in which there is not a single farm animal living, and he told of the great need of animals to again replenish the farms of the war-torn region. Aroused by this call W. E. McClain, of Belle Center, a prominent breeder of fine Merino sheep, and Secretary of the Ohio Wool Growers' Association, has begun a movement to secure a carload of Ohio sheep to be sent on the Methodist Centenary Relief ship which is to sail July first. He has donated a thoroughbred buck and ewe valued at seventy-five dollars, and is personally giving his attention to securing the remainder of the car. Mr. McClain says, "the sheep must be firstlings of the flock and without blemish."

Any person who will contribute to this car is asked to at once communicate with Mr. McClain.

If Speed Is Wanted.

Some girls get their ruddy cheeks by daily calisthenics, others by daily cosmetics. Both ways are satisfactory for obtaining results but you got to hand it to the latter for speed.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the joints and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.

GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

CLOSING EXERCISES NEW JASPER SCHOOL

The schools of New Jasper township will close Thursday, May 15, with a Mass Day program in the afternoon at 1:30. Program will consist of musical numbers from each of the seven schools in the township, recitations, drills and exercises.

The program in the evening at 8:30 will be given by the 8th grade pupils of which there are thirteen, viz: Carl Shultz, Mary Baker, Russell Sutton, Thurman Stethem, Mason Allen, Mabe St. John, Katharine Smith, Catherine Robinson, Lucy Swindler, D. H. Swindler, Charles Keiter, Gladys Eyer, Clifford Hagler.

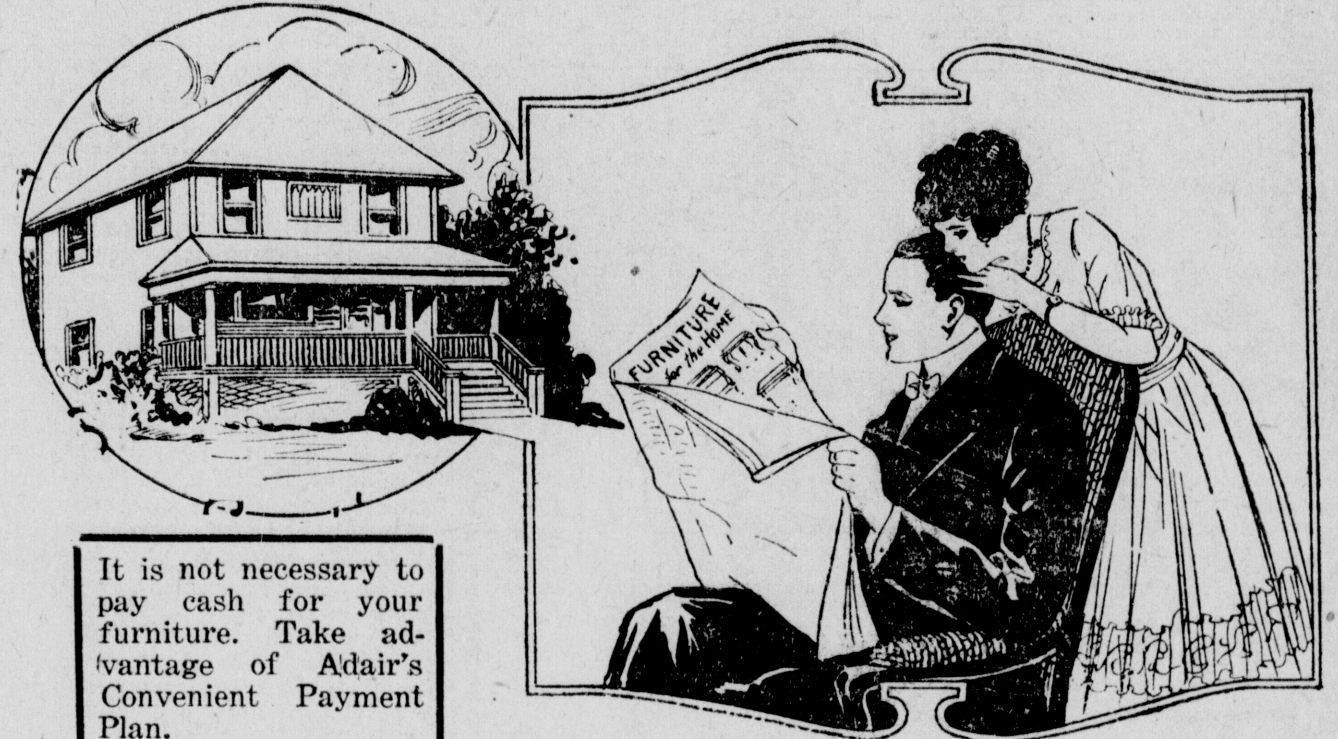

Supt. A. A. Maysilles, of Montgomery Co., will deliver the address and the Beaver Creek orchestra will furnish the music.

Red-Tapeism.

A young detective was enthusiastic but inexperienced. Rushing into his chief's office in great excitement, he cried, "I've found the murderer. I've got him cornered so that he can't escape!" The chief regarded him with withering scorn. "Allow me," he said, "to draw your attention to the fact that at present we are looking, not for the murderer, but for clues!"

GRASSHOPPER ROAD IS TO BE IMPROVED

Recent reports indicate that the D. T. & L. Railroad is ready to begin extensive improvements on the "Grasshopper" Division of the road, extending from Sedalia, in Madison County, to Kingman, in this county, and that the improvements will consist of a large amount of reballasting—or rather ballasting—as part of the road has never seen much ballast—improvement of bridges, installation of thousands of new ties and general attention so that the road will be in much better condition to handle the constantly increasing business of the little division.

The "Grasshopper" reaches one of the richest territories in the State, the Kingman neighborhood being a good farming section. At times there has been talk of abandoning the road, but it is believed that the announcement that the road will be improved means that the "Grasshopper" Division will not be done away with for a few years yet, at least.

About a year ago there was talk of making an electric line out of the D. T. & L. "Grasshopper" Division, but this idea was given up and again it was suggested to extend the lines on through to Harveysburg and connect up with Cincinnati, which would be a great advantage to the Kingman farmers.

The business over the "Grasshopper" Railroad is increasing every year and the owners can ill afford to abandon the road. The word that the road will be reballasted and improved will come as welcome news to the Kingman farmers and other interested persons in that section of the county.—Wilmington News.

As to Snobs.

The true gentleman and the true gentlewoman are always above snobbery. The glitter and glare of wealth, the vulgar show of money, the display of possessions—these are not the evidences of real superiority. Character and true worth are the only standards by which men and women can be judged, whether they be rich or poor. And, as for snobs, why, may heaven save us from them.—Exchange.

New Breed.

Donald was enjoying a ride with his mother when he noticed a black and white dog and remarked, "Why, mother, there's a Holstein dog."

DISCOURAGED

S. W. Cor. 6th and Vine, Greenwood Bldg., Entrance No. 7 W. Sixth St. You have tried everything. It's the same old story. I hear it everyday. Your courage is gone, your faith is gone. The end would be gladly welcomed, but even that won't come. What would you give to be a well man—a well woman? What couldn't you give? Worse cases, perhaps than yours, are yielding as if by magic to its subtle power. Why not your case? I will leave it to your intelligence and good judgment. Slaves to mock or false modesty, you deserve to suffer. 95 per cent of the supposed incurable cases can be relieved, physically and mentally, if they would only confess it to a friend, family, or better, a skilled physician. Don't argue I've tried electricity with no results—you may have no idea what an up-to-date electrically equipped institution really is.

IF I ONLY KNEW JUST WHAT AILS ME.

How often have you made this remark? Yet you continue to suffer, hesitating to seek aid because you consider that medical attention would be too expensive, or, perhaps, are you dissatisfied with past treatment.

Remember, you are hoping and praying never cure any physical ailment. Then, why continue grope in the dark, suffering pain, discomfort and dissatisfaction? An X-ray examination will cost you but one dollar and is considered by the medical profession as one of the greatest aids to a correct diagnosis. If your case is not incurable you can be treated in one of the most completely equipped offices in the Middle West. 25 years' experience.

COST OF LIVING

The cost of living is so high, it makes me feel real sore; there's not a thing you go to buy, but what they ask you more. It keeps you handing out the kale, in large and generous gobs, to keep the bills out of the mail and avoid collectors' mobs. Each time you plunk down for a steak, the plank costs you a plunk. It wouldn't be so bad at that, if the darned thing hadn't shrunk. They raise the more, the more they raise, each product soaring higher; the buyer now is in a daze, 'less he's a daisy buyer. And now while food is going up, the mercury's getting lower, and the cold will make the bread rise high, because it thwarts the sower. And so each little thing today, is assuming higher prices, and the consumer has to cut his pay, in to large and generous slices.

Eagle Is Threatened.

The existence of the bird which is the emblem of America is threatened. An Alaskan law places a bounty of 50 cents on every bald eagle killed. The result is that in 19 months over 5,000 eagles have been killed. The bald eagle is charged with destroying salmon, young deer and game birds.

JAMESTOWN

The Juniors of the Jamestown High School in banqueting the Seniors, gave them a most delightful evening, one which shall always remain as one of the bright spots in their closing school days. Glen Perry, president of the Juniors, in his own happy manner, extended the welcome to the class of '19, to which Ralph Ferguson, president of the Seniors, responded in well chosen words. The dining room of the Hotel Wickersham was radiant with the blending of the class colors, and "Old Glory." The supper consisted of all the delicacies of the season, and was served in five courses. Miss Virginia Moorman was toast-mistress, and those given sparkled with wit and wholesome thoughts, which are vital to the welfare of the student in the future. Richard Sharp, Junior, had the "Seniors' Dignity." Rufus Sanders replied, using the word, "Important." Mildred Toland, "Our High School." Dorothy Ross, "Our Teachers." Both Mr. Arnold and Mr. Simpson addressed both classes. Miss Feeser, teacher in the High School, gave an original poem concerning the class, which was very clever in the production. Glen Perry gave the farewell address to the Seniors. Victrola music was an inspiring feature during the supper hour. The High School teachers were the invited guests of the evening.

Lawrence Paulin, who recently returned from overseas, with the 37th division, is the guest of friends at Montgomery, Alabama, for a couple of weeks. As both the Paulin boys took their training at Camp Sheridan. The churches of Jamestown observed "Mother's Day" very beautifully on Sunday.

Mrs. Hughes Moyer and daughter, Miss Dorothy, returned to their home at Johnstown, Pa., on Monday.

The public schools of Jamestown will close on Friday, the 16th.

Miss Lou Shigley has returned home from Springfield, where she visited with relatives on her return from Battle Creek, Mich.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Bowers visited last week with Mrs. Bowers' mother, at Grove City, and while there, their little son, W. O. Jr., was taken sick, and has been very ill for a few days.

Attorney and Mrs. Stanley Paxson and little son, of Cincinnati, were week end visitors at the home of W. A. Paxson.

Miss Luella Yarnell of Dayton is spending several days with her daughters, Mrs. Will Sutton and Mrs. Earl Little.

Mrs. Charles Thomas of Wilmington, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Weimer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Shifflett are moving to Dayton, where they will make their future home. And we regret to lose such esteemed citizens. For many years Mr. Shifflett has been one of Greene county's faithful and successful teachers, and in this way will also be missed. He has taught in the Jamestown High School and for years in Silvercreek township, having one school for an indefinite time, which is one of the best recommendations a teacher can have. Mr. Shifflett has just closed his school in district No. 2, where he has taught for the past three years, but had formerly been a teacher of the same school. So the most kindly wishes of friends go with Mr. and Mrs. Shifflett to their new home.

On Sunday, at the M. E. church, the Rev. Willis A. Cooper had a beautiful "Mother's Day" service for Wilbur Thomas. Mr. Cooper paid a beautiful tribute to his life and character as a boy in Jamestown, and as an enlisted man in the U. S. navy. He read letters from the captain and other naval officers who had written letters to Mr. Thomas and family. Also a letter from his comrades, containing 20 signatures, and closed the service by reading a most beautiful and sympathetic letter, written by Ted Connor, who is in the U. S. radio service—a classmate and friend of Wilbur's. To Mrs. Thomas. The occasion was one of solemnity, as he is the only soldier of Jamestown or vicinity to lose his life in the service. No homes now that his body ever will be recovered.

Dr. Glen Dennis, who has located at Wilmington, is now fitting up his offices in the building of the Masonic Temple.

Mr. W. J. Galvin has been in Jamestown on business connected with the Journal office.

Miss Zella Barre, of the Mt. Carmel Republican-Register has accepted a position in the office of the Jamestown Journal.

Mrs. Emma Ross is visiting in Xenia with her daughter, Mrs. John Ary and family.

Mrs. Charles Hatch and Mrs. John Gardner were Xenia shoppers, the first of the week.

NO GREENE COUNTY SALOONS WILL BE OPEN ON MAY 26

No Greene County saloons will operate May 26, the last day permissible under the prohibition law.

This is evidenced by the fact that no applications for a new license to operate on that day, have been received by the Greene County Liquor License Board, consisting of L. P. Clevenger and L. H. Whiteman. All saloonists that the license commissioners have talked to have signified their intention of closing up on Saturday night, May 24.

The question arises because all licenses expire on May 24. The prohibition law, however, does not go into effect until Monday, May 26, and saloonists can operate on that day by taking out a new license, which would cost over $300. Applications for the new license have to be in before midnight May 15 and from the present outlook, it appears as if Saturday night, May 24, will hear the swan song of Greene County saloons.

GETS RELEASE FROM THE WORKHOUSE

Atonio Gomez, sent to the local work house from Ross County last January to serve a long sentence for petit larceny, was released from the institution by Judge Kyle Monday on habeas corpus proceedings brought by Attorney Frank Deam. The release was allowed on the ground that the commitment papers did not specify that he was to stand committed until the fine and costs were paid, and the man might have remained in the prison indefinitely.

HE DOES HEAVY WORK

"I do heavy work, and that is a strain on a man's kidneys," writes Bert Dawson, Canton, Ill. "My trouble started with severe sharp pains over my back. I bought a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills, and before it was gone my pains had entirely left me." They banish rheumatic pains, backache, soreness, stiffness. Sayre & Hemphill. adv

RICH BACHELOR WANTS WIFE

"Many people have blamed me for not getting married. Since childhood I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble, never being able to get any medicine or doctor to help me. Now that May's Wonderful Remedy has entirely cured me I am anxious to get a wife." It is a simple, harmless preparation, that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill and druggists everywhere adv

HARD WORKING WOMAN

Knows from Experience that Nothing Equals Vinol to Create Strength.

Holmdel, N. J.—"I live on a farm and am a hard working woman and for weak, rundown, overworked conditions have found nothing that will create an appetite, build me up and make me strong equal to Vinol." Mrs. Thomas Ellis.

The reason we recommend Vinol for such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and all of its ingredients are printed on each package which will prove that it is a safe and valuable remedy to create strength for weak, rundown, overworked men, women and children. Sayre & Hemphill, and druggists everywhere.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Xenia evidence of their merit.

Mrs. Lee Ledbetter, 167 Hill St. says: "As I haven't had a bit of kidney trouble for several years, I believe Doan's Kidney Pills gave me a permanent cure. Before I used Doan's I was miserable and run down. Mornings when I got up, I ached all over and my back was so lame that the least exertion tired me out. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store and I got quick relief. In a short time, I was entirely cured."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ledbetter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y. adv

FUNERAL FOR VICTIM CROSSING ACCIDENT TO BE HELD THURSDAY

Funeral services for William Schauder, Sr., 59, proprietor of the Wolf Creek Soap Works, and who lived on R. R. 14, Dayton, who was killed by a Pennsylvania passenger train here, Sunday afternoon, will be held Thursday morning, at the home on Wolf creek, and burial will be made at Calvary cemetery.

It was hoped that Private Edward A. Schauder, a son, would be home in time for the services. Private Schauder is a member of Battery E, 322nd Field Artillery, and had been overseas since last June. Members of the Schauder family say that Mr. Schauder was anticipating the arrival of his son, and a reception was being planned for him at the time of the fatal accident.

The body of Mr. Schauder was taken to the Frank Reisinger undertaking establishment, Dayton, Monday.

William Schauder, Jr., is still confined at the McClellan Hospital, although Dr. W. A. Galloway, Pennsylvania Railroad physician, who is attending him, says he is getting along unusually well. He will likely remain at the hospital several days, though, before being removed to his home at 35 Felkers Lane, Dayton. His wife is with him at the hospital.

AFTER INFLUENZA, GRIP

And Other Prostrating Diseases That Exhaust the Strength.

There is always a depleted condition of the blood that extreme tired feeling, nervousness and digestive weakness from which recovery is slow unless a good medicine is taken.

The lack of red corpuscles in the blood makes it too thin properly to nourish the body, and the general prostration, annoying humors, boils, loss of appetite and poor digestion prevent progress towards health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla meets these conditions perfectly, as many people know. It has proved the greatest blood-purifying, vitalizing medicine. Nothing else so good in Spring.

It is made from a formula comprising ingredients often used by the best physicians for impure blood, scrofula, rheumatism, weakness. Truly it purifies the blood and makes the weak strong. For a fine family cathartic take Hood's Pills. adv
